AT A GLANCE

The journey

This is our most complete luxury itinerary, combining a full northern safari with a proper beach stay and keeping the number of hotel changes low.

You have a private vehicle and a senior guide throughout. Tarangire comes first, with two nights at a small tented camp. Lake Manyara and a crater-rim lodge follow, so that you are on the floor of Ngorongoro Crater as the gate opens. The Serengeti has three nights at a camp of only a handful of tents, with a dawn balloon flight on one morning.

Instead of driving back to Arusha you fly from the Serengeti to Zanzibar, where three nights at a beachfront villa include a private Stone Town tour with a historian guide, a spice farm visit and a day on the water.

Good for: honeymoons, milestone trips and travellers who want everything arranged. Specific camps and villas are chosen with you when you book, depending on availability and season.
