4-Day Safari: Tarangire & Ngorongoro Crater

A short safari to add to a Kilimanjaro climb or Zanzibar holiday: two days in Tarangire and a morning in Ngorongoro Crater, ending in Moshi.

AT A GLANCE

The journey

Four days will not get you to the Serengeti and back in comfort, so this safari does not try. It concentrates on the two best parks within easy reach of Arusha.

Tarangire has two days. That is more than most itineraries allow, and it lets you go beyond the busy northern section to the Silale swamps, where buffalo and elephants feed in the marsh and few vehicles go. On the third day you drive up to Ngorongoro and descend into the crater for rhino, lion and the big herds on the floor.

The trip finishes in Moshi, where clear mornings bring a view of Kilimanjaro.

Good for: adding a safari to a Kilimanjaro climb or a Zanzibar holiday, and travellers with only a long weekend. Tarangire is at its best from June to October.
