AT A GLANCE

Tour Overview

A short, simple Zanzibar holiday: four nights at a beach hotel, two guided half-days so that you see more than the sand, and the rest of the time left free.

The Stone Town tour takes you on foot through the old trading capital. You see the fort built by the Omanis, the site of East Africa's last slave market, the food and spice stalls of Darajani and the brass-st doors that the town is known for. The spice farm visit, on another day, is a walk through plots of clove, pepper, lemongrass and vanilla with a farmer who explains what each is used for.

One day is kept open for the sea. Your hotel or our team can arrange snorkelling, diving, or the Safari Blue dhow trip through Menai Bay, with its sandbank lunch.

Good for: a beach extension after a safari or a Kilimanjaro climb, or a short break on its own. Tell us whether you prefer a lively beach or a quiet one and we will suggest the coast to match.
