AT A GLANCE

Tour Overview

This trip divides almost evenly between the bush and the coast, and unlike most safari-and-beach combinations the Zanzibar days come with a plan.

The safari starts in Tarangire, crosses the Ngorongoro highlands and gives you three nights in the Serengeti, with two full days of game drives. That is enough time to explore beyond the busy Seronera river loops and to wait at a sighting for something to happen. On the way out you stretch your legs on a guided walk through the farms and village of Mto wa Mbu before flying to Zanzibar.

On the island there is a morning boat trip to look for dolphins off the south coast, a spice farm visit and a guided walk through Stone Town, with a final free day on the beach.

Good for: couples and families who want a balanced holiday with some structure to the beach days. Dolphin sightings depend on sea conditions and cannot be guaranteed.
