AT A GLANCE

Experience Overview

A week is short for a honeymoon in Africa, so this itinerary keeps to two places and gives each enough time.

The first is the Serengeti. You have a private vehicle and guide, so the days run to your schedule: out early for the best light and the most active animals, back for a long lunch, and out again until sunset. On your last evening in the park, dinner is set up for the two of you away from the lodge, by lantern light.

From the Serengeti you fly directly to Zanzibar, which saves the long drive back to Arusha. Three nights at a beach resort follow, with nothing scheduled. Snorkelling, a dhow cruise at sunset, a spa treatment or a walk through Stone Town can be arranged if you want them.

Good for: newly-weds with a week, and couples marking an anniversary. Let us know it is a honeymoon when you book so that the lodges can prepare. With more time, we would add a night at Ngorongoro Crater.
